

Critical functions analysis is done only for the functions that has to be placed in order to achieve the goal of my project which is constructing and operating a concrete lab in Qassim University, the flow chart below presents the analysis in detail which include the mission in the first level, the critical function in the second level, components in the third level, and supports in the fourth level.

